4. Has a well-balanced personality that is worthy of emulation.
5. Is committed to the promotion of well being and upliftment of Filipinos and the Philippines.
6. Possesses a pioneering spirit as evidenced by projects that she has initiated in the service of our country.

TOWNS Foundation, Inc. conducts this triennial search for the purpose of identifying outstanding Filipino women who, in their various capacities have served the country well. TOWNS awardees are true role models for Filipino women and girls who wish to dedicate themselves to nation-building. Once selected, they are expected to continue their excellent work as leaders in their respective fields.

Note: The nomination form is enclosed.

TOWNS SEARCH 2016 RULES AND REGULATIONS

Nominations for TOWNS shall be open to all Filipino women. Any person, organization, or entity may nominate one or more candidates subject to the following requirements:

1. The nominee should have been born NOT EARLIER than October 31, 1970 but must be at least 21 years old.
2. The nominee must be a Filipino citizen.
3. The nominee must sign the nomination form, attesting to all facts contained in the form, give consent to publication of said facts, and indicate willingness and ability to attend the TOWNS Press Conference and Awarding Rites in Manila, if adjudged a winner.
4. Nominations shall be made on the prescribed TOWNS Nomination form, although additional sheets (regular-size bond paper) may be used.
5. Nominations shall be accompanied by a certified true copy of the nominee's birth certificate or any equivalent proof of the nominee's date and place of birth.
6. Five copies of the nominee's latest colored picture (2" x 2", with light colored background) should accompany the nomination form with the name of the nominee printed at the back.
7. The decision of the Board of Judges is final.
8. The nominee, if adjudged a winner, shall become a member of the TOWNS Foundation and must participate in all its activities.

The evaluation process considers the personal, career, and other relevant measures of accomplishments, foremost of which are:

- I. Achievement. An evaluation of the nominee's exceptional accomplishments in her line of specialization or advocacy.

It must be proven that she is distinguished in her particular field or advocacy, the distinction backed up by solid achievements, not mere reliance on her public image. She must have done outstanding work even in a small scale as long as it has contributed to the field of knowledge, national well-being, and upliftment of the Filipino people.

- II. Personality. An evaluation of a well-balanced personality as evidenced by certain manifestations which would make the nominee worthy of emulation.

She must be vibrant and articulate, poised and self-confident, dignified and respectable, and intellectually honest.

- III. Commitment. An evaluation of dedication and complete involvement in projects of great significance.

She must have shown a totally committed pursuit of a well-defined objective leading to the infusion of knowledge, promotion of well-being and/or upliftment of our nation and our people.

- IV. Pioneering Zeal. An evaluation of her ardent interest and accomplishments in a line of activity that is out of the usual and stereotyped.

She should preferably possess a pioneering spirit and has achieved success despite the challenges attendant to new endeavors.

Nominations for TOWNS 2016 Awards shall be received from different individuals and organizations through the TOWNS Secretariat. Nomination forms may be obtained and submitted or mailed to any of the offices listed below and must be received, postmarked, or hand-carried before July 30, 2016.

TOWNS FOUNDATION INC.

The Outstanding Women in the Nation's Service (TOWNS) award is presented by the TOWNS Foundation to outstanding Filipino women ages 21 to 45 years old who have contributed positively to strengthening national capability and shaping the nation's future and served as catalysts for economic, social and cultural development, national security and national unity by providing their time, talent and resources. The award is given every three years during the last week of October and the search for these women is held nationwide for a period of one year. Since its inception in 1974, TOWNS has cited 158 women.

In 1995, the TOWNS Foundation was incorporated to support and harness the talent and capabilities of the TOWNS awardees as members in activities that influence national issues such as workshops and lecture series, regular educational trips, photo and art exhibits, fun runs and publications among others.

TOWNS Foundation, Inc. is a national organization of dynamic and effective women who by their common shared activities help transform the lives of Filipinos. All TOWNS awardees become automatic members of TOWNS Foundation, Inc.
